Angelo Imbrogno, President, The Blue Diamond Group

On Thursday, September 23, 2010, Angelo R. Imbrogno, President of The Blue Diamond Group, a financial planning practice based in Darien, IL was invited by Gunnery Sergeant, Bernardo Camacho, Marine Development Officer for the Illinois Institute of Technology, Naval Reserve Officer Training Corps (IIT, NROTC) as a featured speaker to a select group of The United States Marine Corps.

This group was composed of active duty enlisted Marines with a combined total of 20 Middle East tours of duty. Angelo spoke about leadership in the business world, what he looks for in a potential new employee and how to improve investment performance.

“When I was first asked to speak, I informed Sergeant Camacho, that I would be honored to do so, just name the time and place, and I will be there.” Imbrogno said. It was an experience that I won’t forget.
